Zambia's Energy Regulation Board (ERB) has approved a plan for an emergency increase in electricity tariffs proposed by the state power utility, ZESCO Limited. This adjustment aims to raise approximately $15 million per month from retail customers to help fund the importation of 788 megawatts of electricity.

This two-year project will focus on improving media coverage of conservation issues in East Africa, including wildlife trafficking and human and wildlife conflicts, through workshops that build reporting skills, story grants, stipends to support investigative reporting and roundtables for journalists working on investigative features.

Zambia, a resource-rich, landlocked nation in Southern Africa, is sparsely populated and faces exposure to a range of hazards. Primarily, the country contends with epidemics like cholera outbreaks, and a growing frequency and intensity of seasonal droughts, floods, flash floods, extreme temperatures, and dry spells. The mining industry's toxic tailing contributes to the risk a?|
