United Eswatini Diaspora; Championing justice, freedom, and human rights for a fair and inclusive Eswatini. The organization was founded to help protect the rights of Swazi citizens after the Eswatini Police, Defense Force and Correctional Services Officers brutally killed more than 100 unarmed civilians.

When SLFP shelved the PA and formed the United People's Freedom Alliance together with Janatha Vimukthi Peramuna ahead of the 2004 elections, CPSL and LSSP initially stayed out. They did, however, sign a memorandum with the UPFA at a later stage and contested the elections on the UPFA platform. CPSL does not, however, consider itself a member

A newly established group in Eswatini (formerly Swaziland) is hoping to become the first organisation in the nation to be legally registered as a specifically LGBTI rights group. Activist Melusi Simelane, who was one of those behind the kingdom's historic inaugural LGBTI Pride last year, has founded Eswatini Sexual and Gender Minorities (ESGM).
